GENERAL BUSINESS

- Meetings with T. Ballantyne have be taking place. Trevor was asked by the committee to take over the role of Banmast5er and agreed to take up the position at the last meeting of the committee. Management agreed to support the Bandmaster in ever way possible and that he takes on the position of bandmaster on 7th. June 2011
- The above was decided on the assumption that Mike would relinquish the position as soon as the date mentioned above.
- Mike agreed to these proposals at this meeting and his last band practice as Bandmaster would be on 24th. May 2011.

- The Management Committee received Mike Wilson's resignation and accepted it with GREAT REGRET. The Committee was aware of all the great work that Mike had done over the many many years that he had been a member. A amazing track record with the band and he cannot be thanked enough for the time and effort put in by him and his family over the years.
- A BBQ will be held on 7th. June to introduce the new Bandmaster Trevor to the membership and their families. Mike to hand over to TB on the night.
- Pat to organize BBQ

Labour Day March:-

- For the record Ian Waters had heard that a previous Drum Major had quit because of the poor turnout of a previous years march and that it should be shown in the minutes that this event was not an obligatory payout for the band and never was and never will.
- Plans for the future to be formulated by the Committee and by the Bandmaster.

Blue Cards:-

- Required by all members connected with the training of Juniors.

Code of Conduct:-

- To be conjoined with Bylaws. Copies to be given to all new and returning Members. New Draft accepted

Moved Pat seconded Rob

- AGM Set for Tuesday 2nd. August 2011 7pm at the Hall.

In conclusion a Special thanks to Mike Wilson from Ian and his committee for 50+ good years with the band, Mike will be sorely missed. From us best wishes for the future and stay in touch.
